

ACICC High School Scholarship Application

Scholarship Program Aim

The aim of the ACICC Scholarship Program is to advance the education opportunities for South Burnett Aboriginal high school students.

Eligibility

Members of the South Burnett Aboriginal community whose family reside in the South Burnett area can make applications.

Applicants receiving another equivalent award or scholarship (ie, Abstudy, Austudy, other) are still eligible to receive an ACICC Scholarship.

Applicants must demonstrate achievement in line with Scholarship Guidelines (see below).

Scholarship Guidelines

Students should:

- Demonstrate leadership qualities through being involved with sporting, school, community, cultural or other groups
- Have a commitment to a good attendance record at school
- Demonstrate a capacity for initiative, tenacity and application
- Show potential for continuing education or development as a valuable community member.

It is not necessary that successful applicants should be outstanding academic performers.

Process

High school students will be made aware of this Program through their Principal or Indigenous Liaison Officer (ILO), who will also distribute Applications. Students must complete this Application Form, attach a copy of their most recent school report, and return it to their Principal or ILO when requested.

Successful applicants will be advised by the School they are attending. The decision about successful applicants will be final.

Payment method

- Scholarship funds will be retained by the schools and financial claims against the total funds will be made as the year progresses.
- Claims will be made and approved as a result of negotiations between the students and their teachers/principals.

Conditions

The ACICC must be advised of a change in circumstances or study load.

The ACICC reserves the right to withhold full or partial payment if recipients do not successfully complete their studies or if recipients cease to be worthy representatives of the program.

Funds are only available for the use of the successful applicant.
